2. Venue in this Court is proper pursuant to the choice of law contracted for by the parties in the agreement which forms the basis of this action.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff is an active foreign corporation, organized under the laws of the Province of Ontario, Canada, with its principal place of business located at 510 Front Street West, 4th Floor, Toronto, Ontario, M5V 3H3 Canada.

4. Plaintiff is in the business of providing digital asset management solutions to various businesses' rich media assets, such as pictures, video and audio. Plaintiff has created a technology ("Software") which it uses as a platform to provide solutions to its various clients' rich media management issues.

5. Upon information and belief, Defendant Livid is an active foreign limited liability company, incorporated in Delaware, with a principal place of business in Atlanta, Georgia.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

6. On July 13, 2007 Plaintiff and Defendant entered into a Master License and Services Agreement ("MLSA"), by which Plaintiff agreed to grant Defendant a license to use Plaintiff's Software during the term of the MLSA. A copy of the MLSA is attached as Exhibit A and incorporated by reference. The MLSA includes a provision for Plaintiff's recovery of the costs of collection, including courts costs and reasonable attorney's fees, and for interest from the invoice date/s of the lesser of: (a) 1.5% per month, or (b) the highest rate permitted by law.

7. Plaintiff further provided documentation to facilitate the use of the Software as well as maintenance and support services, the details of which were set forth in the MLSA.

8. As part of the MLSA, Plaintiff also provided professional services in connection with the Software, including implementation, consulting, analysis and training, the details of which were also set forth in the MLSA.

9. In consideration for the Software licenses, maintenance services, and professional services, Defendant agreed to pay Plaintiff the fees set forth in the MLSA in accordance with the agreed upon payment terms.

10. Under the terms of the MLSA, Defendant was to pay the license fees in three installments forty (40) percent being due upon execution of the MLSA, forty (40) percent being due on the date of shipment of the Software by Plaintiff, and twenty (20) percent being due thirty (30) days from the date of shipment of the Software by Plaintiff.

11. As per the terms of the MLSA, the license fees totaled $135,000.

12. Thus, as of the date the MLSA was executed, July 13, 2007, Defendant owed Plaintiff $54,000.

13. Plaintiff shipped the Software to Defendant on July 19, 2007.

14. Thus, as of July 19, 2007, Defendant owed Plaintiff a second payment of $54,000, totaling $108,000.

15. Thirty days after Plaintiff shipped the Software to Defendant, on August 20, 2007, Defendant owed Plaintiff an additional payment of $27,000, the remaining 20% of the license fees, thereby bringing the total of the license fees up to $135,000.

16. Plaintiff supplied Defendant with invoices for the license fees, dated July 18, 2007 ($108,000) and August 20, 2007 ($27,000), totaling $135,000. See Exhibit B.

17. Plaintiff also provided Defendant with invoices regarding customer service and professional services rendered to Defendant, totaling $22,939.54, thereby bringing the total of the license fees and other services up to $157,934.54 See Exhibit C.

18. On October 11, 2007, Plaintiff sent a letter to Defendant regarding Defendant's non-compliance of the payment terms of the MLSA, setting forth a deadline of October 19, 2007 for full payment on all outstanding invoices to date. Plaintiff informed Defendant that, if Defendant failed to comply, Plaintiff intended to enforce its rights under the MLSA through appropriate legal proceedings. See Exhibit D.

19. Defendant failed to make payment on the outstanding amounts due by October 19, 2007.

20. On October 22, 2007, Plaintiff's corporate counsel sent Charles Vaughn, CEO of Defendant Livid, a letter regarding Defendant's continued non-compliance of the payment terms of the MLSA. Plaintiff formally demanded payment of all outstanding amounts, as well as late payment charges to date, by no later than October 29, 2007.

21. Defendant failed to make payment on the outstanding amounts due by October 29, 2007.

22. On October 31, 2007, Plaintiff's corporate counsel sent another letter to Charles Vaughn regarding Defendant's non-responsiveness to Plaintiff's letters. Plaintiff expressed its intent to pursue any claims it has against Defendant regarding Defendant's use of Plaintiff's Software without a valid license and of Plaintiff's customer and professional services. Plaintiff expressed that this letter constituted a final courtesy prior to the commencement of litigation, which Plaintiff intended to pursue if a response was not received by Defendant prior to November 7, 2007. See Exhibit E.

23. On November 7, 2007, Charles Vaughn spoke to Dwayne Walker, Corporate Controller of North Plains, after which Vaughn emailed Walker, affirming the outstanding balance and assuring Walker that payment covering the outstanding invoices would be sent by Fed Ex "by the end of the week." See Exhibit F.

24. By November 14, 2007, Plaintiff still had not received payment on the outstanding invoices and had left voice messages for Defendant, but received no response. Dwayne Walker emailed Charles Vaughn, indicating this, and expressing that by the end of the day on November 15, 2007, the matter would be turned over to New York legal counsel. See Exhibit F.

25. Plaintiff again expressed that it would be willing to hold off on proceeding with legal action until the end of the day on November 15, 2007, if payment was made. See Exhibit F.

26. Plaintiff did not receive any response from Defendant before the close of business on November 15, 2007.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION FOR BREACH OF CONTRACT

27. Plaintiff realleges Paragraphs 1 through 23 above and incorporate them as if set forth fully herein.

28. Plaintiff and Defendant entered a legally binding contract on July 13, 2007.

29. By failing to pay consideration in the amount stated in the MLSA for the use of Plaintiff's services and Software, Defendant has breached the contract.

30. Plaintiff is damaged as a result of this breach.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment in its favor and against Defendant as follows:

A. As for Count One, compensatory damages in an amount to be determined by the trier of fact, but in no event less than $157,939.54, plus accrued interest on the outstanding balance as of the date of this Complaint, in the amount of $13,332.46, and continuing to accrue thereafter, as well as collection costs and attorneys fees as per the terms of Section 4.4 of the MLSA. See Exhibit G.

B. An order directing an accounting to determine all gains, profits, savings, and advantages obtained by Defendant as a result of its wrongful actions.

C. Awarding Plaintiff court costs and reasonable attorneys fees pursuant to the agreed upon terms of the MLSA.

D. Granting Plaintiff such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement, North Plains hereby grants to the Client, and the Client hereby accepts a non-exclusive, world-wide license to use the Software during the term of this Agreement, and to use the Documentation during the term of this Agreement in support of the use of the Software. The license granted hereunder shall be limited to the number of Concurrent Users set forth in Schedule A. The license granted hereunder shall be temporary until all payments set forth in Schedule A have been received by North Plains. Upon receipt of full payment in accordance with this Agreement, Client shall be issued a permanent serial number key to use the Software.

2.2. The Client is only permitted to install the Software on the Servers specified on Schedule A and may make only one copy of the Products for backup or archival purposes, provided such copy must contain all copyright, trade mark and trade secret notices of North Plains thereon. Any such copy shall become the property of North Plains. 3. IMPLEMENTATION AND COOPERATION

3.1. The Client shall designate a responsible individual with the authority, competence and responsibility to act as a project manager hereunder. The Client project manager shall be responsible for providing or coordinating the provision of such information about the Client and its operations as North Plains may reasonably require, supervising the conduct of acceptance testing, and coordinating training on the Software following the installation thereof. The Client's project manager shall have the authority on behalf of the Client to notify North Plains that any acceptance tests provided for herein have been successfully passed or, where applicable, that the Client waives compliance with any such acceptance tests.

3.2. The Client agrees during the first year of its use of the Software, that it will acquire Maintenance Services at the service level selected by it, as set out in Schedule A.

3.3. North Plains and the Client shall use their best efforts to carry out their respective obligations under this Agreement.

4. PAYMENT

4.1. Software Licenses. In consideration for the license granted hereunder, the Client agrees to pay North Plains the License Fees set out in Schedule A to this Agreement in accordance with the payment terms set out therein.

4.2. Maintenance Services. In consideration for the Maintenance Services to be provided hereunder, the Client shall pay North Plains the Maintenance Services fees set out in Schedule B to this Agreement in accordance with the payment terms set out therein.

4.3. Professional Services. As compensation for performing the Professional Services, the Client agrees to pay North Plains the Professional Services fees set out in Schedule C to this Agreement in accordance with the payment terms set out therein.

4.4. Unless otherwise set out in a schedule to this Agreement, all fees payable under this Agreement will be due thirty (30) days from the date of the relevant invoice unless contested in good faith. Amounts unpaid for thirty (30) days after due date, unless contested in good faith, shall bear interest from the invoice date of the lesser of: (a) one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) per month, or (b) the highest rate permitted by law. Time is of the essence for all payments due under this Agreement (unless contested in good faith), and in the event any payment due to North Plains is collected at law, through a lawyer or a collection agency, the Client agrees to pay all costs of collection, including without limitation, all court costs and reasonable lawyer's fees.

4.5. The fees listed in this Agreement do not include taxes, import duties or export duties which may be imposed in the United States. If North Plains is required to pay any sales or use, taxes levied on the Products Professional Services or Maintenance Services by any state of the United States or a subdivision thereof, and such tax is properly imposed by law on Client (and not imposed by law on North Plains) then such taxes shall be billed to and paid by the Client. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Client shall not be required to pay, and North Plains shall not charge Client for, any excise, value added, import or export tax as may be imposed by the United States of America or any foreign governmental entity (such as Canada) with respect to the importation or exportation of the Products, Professional Services or Maintenance Services, nor shall Client be responsible in any manner for the portion of any tax which is required to be deducted and/or withheld by Client under any applicable law. This section does not apply to taxes based on North Plains' net income or North Plains' employer contributions and taxes, all of which shall be the obligation of North Plains.

4.6. North Plains reserves the right to withhold Professional Services or Maintenance Services if the Client is delinquent in payment for said services or any amounts authorised hereunder, and to change the Client's credit terms, if North Plains' opinion, the financial condition or previous payment record of the Client so warrants.

The Client agrees not to alter, remove or obscure any copyright or other proprietary notices on or in the Software or on the Documentation. The Client shall not attach, remove or disfigure any North Plains marks on or in the Software or on the Documentation, and shall not attach any additional marks to the Products.

6.3. Except as permitted by this Agreement, each party shall maintain in confidence and shall not disclose or use any Confidential Information, without the prior express written consent of the owner thereof, whether or not such Confidential Information is in written or permanent form, except to the extent contemplated herein.

6.4. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Products shall be accessible only to those employees, consultants or agents of the Client who require access to the Products in order to perform their duties to the Client. Save for the Client's right to make only one copy of the Products for backup or archival purposes, no copies of the Products shall be made by the Client or the Client's employees, consultants or agents.

7. ADDITIONAL RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS

7.1. The Client shall not:

- a) under any circumstances, rent, lease, transfer, export or sub-license the Products;
- b) reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble or modify the Products, nor attempt to gain knowledge of the source code of the Products in any manner whatsoever; or

7.3. In order to assist North Plains in the protection of North Plains' proprietary rights with respect to the Products and the Confidential Information, the Client shall permit North Plains to audit the Client's compliance with this Agreement, as North Plains deems reasonably necessary, and shall permit North Plains to inspect the Client's premises at which the Software is used and any premises at which the Software or Documentation is stored. The Client shall advise North Plains on demand of all the premises at which the Products are being used or stored, and shall provide North Plains with access to the Products, including any copies of thereof.

8. NO SERVICE BUREAU

8.1. The Client hereby acknowledges and agrees that the rights granted in this Agreement only allow the Client to use the Products for its own internal business purposes. The Client agrees that it will not: (i) use the Products to assist any third party in conducting such third party's business, (ii) use the Products to provide media asset management services to any third party or assist any third party in doing so, and/or (iii) facilitate the actions of any third party seeking to circumvent the payment to North Plains of any license fees for the Products.

9. DATABASE CONNECTIVITY LICENSE

11.2. North Plains shall not be responsible for any defects in the Products that result from the Client's abuse, or improper use of the Products, or for any defects in the Products that result from conduct or conditions outside the control of North Plains. If the Client abuses or improperly uses the Products, the above limited warranty shall be immediately terminated.

11.3. Except as set forth above, or as set forth in the specifications to the Software or the Products, North Plains excludes any representation or warranty that the operation of the Products shall be uninterrupted, error-free or secure, or that any defects in the Product are correctable or shall be corrected.

11.4. The Client acknowledges that it is responsible to determine whether the Products sufficiently meet the Client's requirements.

If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision or part thereof and the remaining part of such provisions and all other provisions hereof shall, to the extent reasonably possible, continue in force and effect.

20.8. The Parties agree to do or cause to be done all actions reasonably deemed it necessary or desirable to implement and carry into effect this Agreement to its full extent. Without limiting the foregoing, each Party hereto will at any time and from time to time execute and deliver or cause to be executed and delivered such further instruments and take such further actions as may be reasonably requested by the other Party, in order to cure any defect in execution and/or delivery of this Agreement.

20.9. Save as otherwise expressly set out herein, no waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall be binding unless it is in writing. No indulgence or forbearance by a Party shall constitute a waiver of such Party's right to insist on performance in full and in a timely manner of all covenants in this Agreement. Waiver of any provision shall not be deemed to waive the same provision thereafter, or any provision of this Agreement at any time.

IN WITNESS THEREOF the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed and signed in their names by the proper officials thereof who are duly authorized, as of the Effective Date.

Re: Collections of past due amounts

Dear Sir:

This letter provides formal complaint as to the non-compliance of payments terms, by Livid Media LLC, as set out in the Master License and Services Agreement ("MLSA") between North Plains Systems Corp. ("NPS") and Livid Media LLC ("Livid").

As outlined within section A, clause 4 of the MLSA, "the license fees shall be payable in three (3) installments, forty percent (40%) being due upon execution of the Agreement, forty percent (40%) being due on the date of shipment of the Software by North Plains to the Client, and the remaining twenty percent (20%) being due thirty (30) days from the date of the shipment of the Software by North Plains." All payments remain outstanding as of the date of this letter. The software was delivered by FTP on July 19th 2007. As such, all payments are past due. The invoices were provided to you, Ernest Quarles, VP of Livid, on July 18th (for the first 80%) and August 20th (for the remaining 20%).

NPS, through its Office Manager, Controller, and myself, VP of Global Sales, have attempted numerous times to reach out to you regarding assurance of payment. NPS has yet to receive any confirmation that the invoices due and outstanding are in the process of being paid.

NPS expects to receive payment on all outstanding invoices by end of day, October 19th 2007, failing which NPS intends to enforce its rights under the MLSA through appropriate legal proceedings.

Regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Julius da Costa". The signature is stylized with a large, looped initial "J".

Dear Mr. Vaughan:

Re: Indebtedness of Livid Media LLC to North Plains Systems Corp.

Further to my letter to you dated October 22, 2007, as you are aware we have been retained by North Plains Systems Corp. ("North Plains") in respect of the outstanding receivables owing to it by Livid Media LLC ("Livid"). As of yet there has been no response received to the October 22, 2007 letter.

As you are well aware, Livid has not honored its legally binding commitment to pay North Plains the fees owed to it pursuant to the Master License and Services Agreement dated July 13, 2007 (the "Agreement"). Given Livid's failure to meet its obligations it is North Plains' position that Livid does not possess a valid license use the Software (as such term is defined in the Agreement). Accordingly, in addition to and/or in the alternate seeking payment of the amounts owed to North Plains, North Plains intends to vigorously pursue any claims that it may have with respect to your improper use of the Software, which may include without limitation the seeking of injunctive relief, as well as damages based on intellectual property infringement.

This letter is being written as a final courtesy prior to the commencement of litigation which North Plains intends to pursue as soon as practicable if a satisfactory response is not received prior to November 7, 2007.

If you wish to discuss this matter with us, please contact us immediately either directly or through your solicitors.

Yours truly,
MINDEN GROSS LLP

Gentlemen,

Based on the email below, and telephone conversations over the past week, Livid made a commitment to NorthPlains that full payment would be made for all outstanding invoices. To date, this commitment has not been met.

NorthPlains wishes to get the engagement back on the right track but failure from you to keep commitments has been very disappointing. I have left voice messages again this week, with no return communication. I have tried to prevent this matter from turning legal, but, by end of day tomorrow, Thursday November 15, 2007, this matter will be turned over to our New York legal counsel for filing of claim against Livid Media LLC.

Up until end of day tomorrow, the Company is still willing to not proceed with legal action if payment is made. Please call me to discuss.

Regards,
